

READ TO LEAD

7 Ideas : Teaching Juneteenth in Your Classroom

READ TO LEAD

TEACHING JUNETEENTH Choice Board

The choice board consists of nine activity cards arranged in a 3x3 grid. The top-left card features two raised fists and the text 'Search for your vocabulary word of the day'. The top-middle card shows a magnifying glass over the text 'Search for your vocabulary word of the day'. The top-right card depicts an open book and the text 'Read about Juneteenth's history'. The middle-left card shows two hands holding a red 'X' and a green checkmark, with the text 'Discuss and debate current events'. The middle-middle card features a red and white striped popcorn bucket and the text 'Watch diverse leaders in the spotlight'. The middle-right card shows a laptop screen with the text 'Lead a diverse team in a Read to Lead game'. The bottom-left card shows a megaphone and the text 'Create a public service announcement'. The bottom-middle card shows fireworks and the text 'Celebrate Juneteenth with your community'. The bottom-right card features an illustration of a Black woman in a white lab coat and a Black man in a blue sweater.

Search for your vocabulary
word of the day

Read about Juneteenth's history

Discuss and debate current events

Watch diverse leaders in the spotlight

Lead a diverse team in a Read to Lead game

Create a public service
announcement

Celebrate Juneteenth with your community

Activity 1: Search for your vocabulary word of the day

Use this word search game to introduce and pre-teach vocabulary terms for Juneteenth. Pro tip: The first word your students see can be the vocabulary word for the day!

Activity 2: Read about Juneteenth's history

Give students the background history of Juneteenth with a reading comprehension lesson that uses informative and historical texts. Check out the lesson plan!

Activity 3: Discuss and debate current events

Spark deep discussion and reflection with your students with a current events debate question.

Activity 4: Create a Public Service Announcement

Inspire action within your students. Allow students to create a public service announcement to share and educate others about and honor the significance of Juneteenth.

Activity 5: Lead a diverse team in a Read to Lead game

Sign up or log in, and assign your class a game, where they become the boss and work with their staff to find a solution for the workplace problem of the day.

Activity 6: Watch diverse leaders in the spotlight

Pull up a chair, grab some popcorn, and listen to the journey of any of our guests on Read to Lead: Live! our student-friendly webinar series that gives students a front-row seat into career exploration.

Activity 7: Celebrate Juneteenth with your community

Hold class presentations, give your students a platform to share what they learned with the community.

Share how you're teaching!

Use #ReadtoLeadGames to be featured!

@readtoleadgames

